

Note: We are no longer accepting guest posts to Coral Lifestyle Magazine until further notice. Thanks.

Coral Lifestyle Magazine is an online lifestyle magazine designed to inspire Africa. We are a community of those who are passionate about Africa and want to share all that is inspiring and stylish about being an African.

We welcome guest post submissions from anyone who is passionate about life. Actually, if you are passionate about your message and would like to reach close to 50 thousand social followers, then this space is reserved for you.

Why Contribute to Coral Lifestyle

1. You will reach a specific and large audience of young upwardly mobile Africans who are interested in what you have to say. We promote all our posts on Facebook, Twitter and Google+
2. You can let people know more about you by including a bio, which would have a link back to your blog or Facebook page. This usually increases the traffic to your page.

3. You can promote your products or services in your bio, thereby getting more exposure to a targeted audience.

Writing Guidelines

- Post must be between 600 - 800 words
- Your post should relate to life and family from your perspective. The more personal your post, the higher your chances of acceptance.
- Your post should not be self-promotional but should teach, inspire or entertain
- Include 2 - 3 subheadings in your post

Contact us for our detailed writing guidelines.
